Teachers' Training Session (July-2018)

Teachers' Training session was held on (Fri) 20th July & (Sat) 21st July for the teachers of DPWS Alwar. Thanks to Our IRC Member Trainers Mrs. Radha Singh and Mrs. Soma Mandal who specialize for covering Multiple Intelligences, Bloom's Taxonomy, Innovative and Creative Learning together with Parental Engagement in the Teaching Learning Process.

The session began with a quick glance at the vision of DPWF which was explained by Ms. Radha Singh through a PowerPoint presentation. It stated that DPWF is committed to provide state of the art education, emulating Indian values & the culture around the world. It aims to create global citizens as torch bearers of the World.

The second day started with a session giving a brief insight on the 8 Intelligences advocated by the specialist Howard Gardner. The teachers were briefed about the MI with the help of a PPT & different activities.

Teaching aids like lesson plans & activities to be planned keeping the (MI) in mind.

After that a story telling session was conducted by Soma Ma'am for Pre-Primary through hand puppets, gestures & voice modulation. The story telling session concluded with an interactive activity for the teachers in groups.

Teachers were oriented about the life skills identified by WHO (World Health Organization).

The last part of the session targeted effective implantation of POCSO and the committee of Vishakha. The session was packed with various perspectives from the field of Psychology, Child rights commission, judiciary and education with a varied planned throwing light on the details of POCSO & protection of child against all kinds of abuse.
